On Monday, May 8, 2023 the St. Anne Village Board

held its monthly meeting, welcoming two new trustees to replace two members who recently resigned to pursue other interests, Louis Farber and Ron Grubbs.

The meeting was brought to order by Mayor David O’Connell, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Chris Sutherland installed new trustees Miramontes and Dahns then general business was conducted by committee reports.

The business of your village board is conducted by Mayor David O’Connell; Chief of Police Todd Navratil; Village Clerk Chris Sutherland; Village Treasurer Sue Bonvallet; ESDA Director Don Leveque; and Building Inspector and Code Enforcer David Pomaranski.

Miramontes and Dahns joined the team of trustees comprised of Lucas O’Connell, Tim Wendt, Steve Abrassart, and Jerry Stam.

This is the first time in many years that women have been elected to the village board trustees. Kathy Caise served in the 1988.

Notes of interest include:

- Summer meetings begin at 6:00 pm
- Fishing Tournament to be held July 26
- Reminder to get Golf Cart/Side-by-Side Stickers
- The possibility of a new restaurant coming soon
- It is National Honor Police Week

About your new trustees:

Dana Miramontes is married to Gilberto Miramontes and they have two sons, Diego and Benicio.

For four years Dana has been a Realtor with Coldwell Banker.

She also brings experience in the St. Anne Youth Group and a religious education teacher for young people at St. Anne Catholic Church.

Dana has been appointed to the following committees: License & Health, Building & Zoning, Annexation Planning; Parks & Building Maintenance; and Finance & Personnel.

Jeanine Dahns is married to Zach Dahns and they are raising one 14 year-old child, Gavin. Trevor and Seth Raines are adults and are in the military. Born and raised here in St. Anne, being a part of her children’s life is very important; therefore, serving on a board such as the village demonstrates that she wants the best influence for her family.

Jeanine has been employed with Cigna for 13 years.

She also brings community volunteerism to the table as she has served on the Pumpkin Fest Committee for 3 years and is currently the president.

Jeanine has been appointed to the following committees: Equipment/Civil Defence & County Board Rep.; Finance & Personne; and Public Work.
